

What is Legal Tech?

Technologies that improve creation, distribution and / or utilisation of legal services. Legal Tech enables easier access to justice and faster service delivery while increasing process efficiencies in the judicial system.

Stakeholders in the Ecosystem

Services provided by Legal Tech Startups

Front-end Services:

Services that increase the quality, efficiency, and accessibility of services provided to citizens by stakeholders with the goal to improve access to justice.

- Service Providers to Clients - Service Marketplace, IP Management, Open Source Legal Intelligence
- Regulators to Clients - Documents Marketplace, Online Dispute Resolution, Case Allocation
- Clients to Clients (Citizen to Citizen) - Technology Education and Awareness

Startup Examples:

Back-end Services:

Services that include technology infrastructure, software tools, operational support that helps 'Service Providers' and 'Regulators' collect, organize and make decisions based on data in order to increase their process efficiency and ensure effective service delivery to the 'Clients'.

- For Service Providers - Contract Management, Compliance Management
- For Regulators - Judiciary Data Aggregation, Court Operations Management
- For Service Providers and Regulators - Case Management, Research and Analytics, Practice Management

Startup Examples:

